readers of the APPEAL this morning that the strike is nearly over, that the passion of the mob has well-nigh expended itself, and that by Tuesday, at the farthest, with Sunday for reflection, all who are yet riotously disposed will have yielded to the logic of authority and retired from a field marked by needless bloodshed and useless loss of property. The wave of excitement is subsiding, and law and order are once more asserting their sway. Of course, for some days to come, we shall have here and there fitful flares of passion, but these will only the more plainly mark the sub-idence of a strike which, in its origin, spread and results, is one of the most remarkable social upheavals

in the whole range of human history.

AN UNDERCURRENT OF WRATH.

The afternoon has passed quietly in this police and military authorities are exercising the utmost viglance. Numerous arrests have been made of men who have taken part in the present troubles. Among these are Al-bert Burlin, the secretary of the international nembers of the executive committee of the workingmen's party. These men are in jail and will probably be brought to trial. The real condition of things in East St. Louis is commander of this military department, di-rected General Davis to send a force there to COMPEL THE OBEDIENCE TO THE ORDER of the courts. This, however, does not apply to any other roads than those mentioned above; but so long as United States soldiers property will be safe, and if riotous proceedings are indulged in, they will be quelled at once. Biuford Wilson, who has been appointed a special deputy United States marshal for the occasion, has charge of the whole matter, and will see that the orders of the court affecting the two roads in question are carried out. All the roads that wanted to send out passenger-trains have done so, and are stationed in East St. Louis, all railroad property will be safe, and if riotous proceedsend out passenger-trains have done so, and some freight-trains have been moved. Re-

LONDON, July 28.—A dispatch from Berlin to the Times says that in consequence of the dispatch of British troops to Malta, a regular campaign has been opened by the entire Rus-sian press against England. Some journals laugh at the insignificant force England can spare for an eastern war, and others declare that odious England is fighting Russia even now, seeing that the Egyptian troops have been equipped with English money, while all agree in regarding English antagonism as a natter of indifference, and not to be dreaded

The Times's correspondent at Timova, at the junction of the Jambali, Phillipoppolis and Adrianople railways, writes, under date of July 19th, as follows: "There has been a horrible massacre of Bulgarians by the Bashi-Bazouks at Yeni Saghra. Not a single soul would have escaped but for the arrival of the Turkish regulars. The Bashi-Bazouks. of the Turkish regulars. The Bashi-Bazouks, Circassians and irregulars treat all the vil-lages they pass the same way, burning, ravishing and pillaging."

Paris, July 28.—President MacManon has arrived at Bourgess, where the mayor presented an address. The president in replying, said that his whole aim had been the maintenance of peace abroad and constitu tional order at home. His intentions and acts had been misrepresented. There had been no violation of the constitution, or interference with the liberty of conscience, or the copardizing of foreign relations. The publ good sense had estimated these calumnies at their true value. They will not discourage nor prevent him from fulfilling his task. With the help of the men who have hitherto
